Buddy	I wonder if it's really your criteria If something is always in the media Then is it good and true or maybe is it not? We should not take the news out to serious cause they're cheatin' us
Buddy	Don't you think the news are chosen by the people who are leading us They're showing us what they want and we consume it, but we need to stop An independent media needs to be there so let's speed it up We definitely loosing propaganda war if we give up
